United States Department of Agriculture

USDA Rural Development provides owner occupied, Single Family Housing loans to eligible low income applicants who are unable to obtain credit elsewhere. Applicants may obtain 100% Direct financing to:

- Purchase and/or repair new or existing housing (including new manufactured housing)
- Purchase a building site and construct a dwelling
- Build a home with the Self Help method. Under this program, applicants provide sweat equity labor to build their own homes.
- Purchase a government owned home or assume an existing 502 Direct loan. For a list of government owned homes visit http://www.resales.usda.gov

Generally, properties financed may not exceed 1,800 square feet of above grade living area and must be located in a rural area. In most cases, an area is considered rural if the population is 10,000 or less. The following website can be used to help you determine both applicant and property eligibility: http://eligibility.sc.egov.usda.gov/eligibility/.

Based on income level, applicants may qualify for monthly payment assistance (subsidy), which is subject to recapture when the loan is paid off. Eligibility requirements include but are not limited to:

- Adjusted household income which is at or below 80% of median income (see chart on page 2). Adjusted income is calculated by subtracting eligible deductions from the gross income of all adult household members.
- A satisfactory credit history. A credit score of 640 or above typically indicates satisfactory credit. However, applicants with lower scores, or who have had credit difficulties, may be eligible under certain circumstances.

Sample Adjusted Income Calculation for a Family of 6 with 4 children:

Gross Annual Income: $65,000

Minus

$480 deduction per child: $ 1,920

Minus

$600 per month daycare: $7,200 Adjusted Income $55,880

- A stable source of income, which provides adequate ability to repay the loan payments.
- Be a U.S. Citizen or legally admitted U.S. resident who is 18 years of age or older and is able to enter into a binding contract.
- Meet other eligibility requirements
